

Marina Yakhno

A Jungian analyst, leading groups on personal development. She's been working as a psychologist since 2016, a certified trainer in working with PTSD, experienced in helping children and adults dealing with the crises, divorce, violence in the family. Marina has worked as a volunteer with internally displaced persons in Ukraine. She is knowledgeable in in-depth psychology, as well as cognitive behavioral and schema therapy.