NUMBER 12, SEPTEMBER 1982

A Letter From Elisabeth

Dear friends all over the world!

Here I am back home again after a month in Australia and a few days before I take off for Switzerland, Germany, Finland, Sweden and Canada...I treasure those days like a thirsty traveler through the Sahara must feel when he gets to an oasis and has his first handful of fresh water before taking off again.

Need I say that the peaches and tomatoes were just ready for harvesting and canning and my shelves are loaded with preserves from my home grown strawberries to peach preserves, blueberries, raspberries. And soon I will be able to have my first honey from my beehives. The peach trees that my children planted three years ago had a harvest of 50 pounds each and that does not include the share I left for the birds and my bees!

In the midst of returning to "my paradise" I found dark clouds on the horizon with another reoccurance of Lynn Akana's cancer. Lynn has been our bookkeeper, legal and technical assistant and a million more things. To conserve her energy she has moved her office to her home, and she is sorely missed up at Shanti Nilaya. We are trying to hang in there without her and when things get too complicated we visit her at home where she tries to get as much work done as humanly possible. So, send out your loving energy and your prayers — we still believe in miracles!

Linda has left already and in mid October we will pack up all there is at Shanti Nilaya and move to an office in Escondido. It will save a lot of money, running around, trying to find people for phone calls and naturally reduce the flow of visitors from near and far who came to see this special place.

Since we were not able to use the 42 acres for workshops or patient care, it became an expensive and far too luxurious accommodation. So by the time you read this Newsletter you can imagine us walking the land one more time, taking a last look over the hills toward the ocean, standing up on the rock where the huge Ankh used to stand and taking a last stroll with the dogs, Flip and Zeke who grew up here and who will need a new home also.

And so it is with life, the expected does not materialize, the old make room for the new, dreams are buried to make room for new ones.

The Holistic Health Conference which I have just attended in San Diego was a marvellous experience of all the changes that have taken place. Six years ago I stood on the same platform on the almost identical day and shared with the audience my first meeting with my guides. Yesterday I told them about the illusions, the misuse of gifts and the great detours we have to make at times to learn our lessons. Yes, we have come a long way and I am glad those years are behind me — life seems so much more peaceful, with so much more serenity and so much more work accomplished. I have reduced the original staff from once 22 people to eight — and we still get our work done, answer thousands and thousands of letters and phone calls, give more workshops than ever all over the world and have — once again — waiting lists and a full house wherever I go.

You can help us the most right now by simply sending your love and energy to Lynn and all of us for our moving days in mid-October. If you live nearby give us a call if you are able to offer manpower, a truck, boxes, labels, an organizational mind — and especially if you have time and experience in bookkeeping for the next few months. We always need volunteers for packing boxes, folding and mailing Newsletters, sending tapes and books out and assisting us in our giftshop for the benefit of our indigent workshop participants and cancer patients. Since our giftshop closes October 15, 1982 to make room for our new offices, we are having a big sell out! All Christmas ornaments need to be packaged and sold, a lovely job for a volunteer!

The new book WORKING IT THROUGH again with photographs by Mal Warshaw, taken at many different workshops across the country — is now available and we appreciate your orders. Also the new video teaching tapes made at the Washington School of Medicine for hospital personnel and medical students has been well received and is available as well as the BBC film about my work with dying children and adults in house calls. Let others know about these new resources — it will help us to defray the moving expenses.

This much for local news. The "Friends of Shanti Nilayas" across the country are doing well with an all-voluntary army of helpers and we are trying to do a similar thing here in our administrative center as soon as possible.

Shanti Nilaya Australia has done terrific again this year. Rita did an outstanding job in organizing the two workshops and we already have people on the waiting list for 1984! The townhall lecture in Sydney went well and the two National talk shows reached an enormous number of people all across the nation. Anne Reid and Gordon Coates were tremendous helpers and Betty, Stella and Mitch were our special guardian angels, who worked mainly in the background but helped more than I can tell.

Little Christine died before I returned to Brisbane but I had a lovely visit with her parents and twin sister and you can read about her in my next book ON CHILDREN AND DEATH which is now in print at MacMillan.

Do some of you remember the other Ann Reed (not the doctor), who had a serious heart condition and who was told it would kill her if she went to our workshop two years ago? Well we took her anyway and it was a life changing experience and we enjoyed every minute of it. We visited last week. She and her friend Chris put the most spectacular dinner together for the many Shanti Nilaya Brisbane friends. We had a feast inspite of the Asian flu which incapacitated a few of the participants — some of whom had to be hospitalized with encephalitis! So if any of you get the "bug" take care of yourself and pamper yourself; it is a nasty type, but we all survived thanks to positive thinking and good humor....and needless to say tons of love from thousands of Australians from Newcastle to Sydney, from Brisbane to Melbourne. It was like coming home again on the other side of this planet where it is winter now, where the spring flowers are budding and where they have Christmas in the midst of summer! My son Kenneth had a wonderful time in Sydney. Again with his first job and his first earned money before leaving via China, Hong Kong, and Bangkok to Switzerland where he will study for one semester near Lugano — five minutes away from where I will give my December workshop which ends — divine minipulation! — when his semester ends. So we will most likely not go straight home, but spend Christmas in Poland and then go off to Russia or choose Tunisia/Morocco as our "little detour."

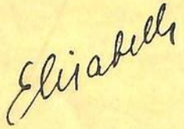
As I have said so many times I believe we should give our children memories and not bank-accounts or material treasures when we leave this earth and Barbara and Kenneth have had many exciting and adventurous trips with their parents. Manny — by the way — is in good health again and able to travel. He is taking our daughter to Colorado this week where she starts to study Child Psychology at the college of her choice in Colorado Springs. So if you are nearby, drop by and give her a hug from me — if you can find her on one of the ski slopes!

We are sending this Newsletter out early as I am leaving for five weeks and our reduced staff tries to keep the "shop going" while we still have the 42 acres — soon it will be 700 square feet. So be patient with us and order all your Christmas things and presents early from our Giftshop. A special page with subscription, sizes, colors, etc., is included. Every gift is tax deductible and helps a needy person — so you will have given a double Christmas gift.

With many thanks for your continued support.

Love and blessings,

Elisabeth



CHILDREN TEACH US PEACE

A very exciting evening is planned for October 18, 1982, when Mrs. Anwar Sadat, Dr. Gerald Jampolsky, Hugh Prather and a group of children gather to share their ideas on peace. For further information, contact University of California Extension, Santa Cruz, CA 95064; (408) 429-4534.

Also, on this theme, look out for Gerald Jampolsky's new book entitled CHILDREN AS TEACHERS OF PEACE.

TRAINING PROGRAM IN THE EXTERNALIZATION PROCESS

Shanti Nilaya held the first Training Program in the Externalization Process on the weekend of September 17-19 in Pauma Valley, California. This was a small group of 20 people who met together for an intense weekend and learned about the emotional growth process and externalization technique that is an important part of our "Life, Death and Transition Workshops," growth groups and future screaming rooms.

Several Friends of Shanti Nilaya Groups are making plans to host more of these training weekends during 1983 in their own vicinities. If you would like to host a weekend training, or if you would like to participate, please write to us here at Shanti Nilaya (attention: Training Program) and we will keep you informed of all training activities.

The essential element that a group hosting a training should provide is an isolated, sound-proof building that will hold 25-30 people. Good luck!

NEWS FROM THE LIFE AND DEATH TRANSITION CENTER

The Center is now offering a three-day workshop based on Elisabeth's LDT Workshops for 35-40 people. There are two workshops scheduled: Oct. 22-24, 1982 (cost $60. includes room and board) and Apr. 29-May 1, 1983 (cost $70. includes room and board). For information and reservations, contact: Thomas Frantz or Lucille Sherlick, Life and Death Transition Center, 1237 Delaware Ave., Buffalo, NY 14209; (716) 881-5182.

Lynn Akana, our beloved friend, died peacefully on September 19, surrounded by many friends.

The simple beauty of Lynn's love touched many lives.

The essence of Lynn's legacy has affected each of us in a unique way. Her life consistantly expressed acceptance, devotion and humor.

Our thoughts and prayers are with her dearest friend, Donna in Escondido and with Wayne and David, Lynn's sons in Hawaii.

Aloha to our sensitive friend, who moved from her native Hawaii to share the gift of her last years with Elisabeth and Shanti Nilaya.

"Mahalo, Lynn"

We Are Growing!!

SEEDS TAKE ROOT . . .

Dear Friends,

"Friends of Shanti Nilaya/Chicago" is active and growing. In addition to our weekly support group meetings, we will meet twice on Sunday afternoon between now and Christmas.

The three remaining discussions in our special series on loss are: Loss of a child — Sept. 14, Alcoholism — Oct. 19, Suicide — Nov. 9.

There is great enthusiasm in the Chicago area for our first LDT Workshop which will be June 6-10, 1983 at Villa Redeemer Retreat House, Glenview, Il.

We are making plans to bring the training staff to Chicago in January for a weekend training workshop. This is part of Shanti Nilaya's Training Program in the Externalization Process. The workshop will be limited to 15 people. If you are interested call Dave or Lois Thompson (312) 437-4498.

"FRIENDS OF SHANTI NILAYA — MARYLAND"

Our "Friends of Shanti Nilaya/Maryland" group and the Forum for Death Education and counseling co-sponsored a Shanti Nilaya Benefit lecture given by Elisabeth in June. It was attended by a large audience and enthusiastically received!

Gregg Furth gave two "Spontaneous Drawings" workshops here in August. The participants urged us to offer more drawing workshops, so we plan to host a beginning and an advanced workshop in October 1983.

Jerry Jampolsky, M.D., is giving an evening lecture in Arnold, Maryland on October 15, 1982, which you don't want to miss!

Our Mutual Support Group meetings continue to be held every Sunday evening in Annapolis, Maryland, new members are welcome. For further information concerning any of our activities contact Bill Griswold, P.O. Box 269, Arnold, Maryland 21012. (301) 974-4224.

Dear Friends,

Our Hawaiian family is growing as we work closer with the community throughout the islands of Maui, Hawaii and Oahu. Our community work extends a helping hand to many human service agencies, schools and hospitals.

The prison group has quite a musical gift that is now emerging. The inmates are also working to put together a Newsletter full of their own personal sharings

We are all truly beginning to see the power and beauty of the "Ohana" (family spirit)! We send you all love and rainbows from Shanti Nilaya Maui!

Bobbi Leone

Dear Friends,

A group has formed to organize a "Friends of Shanti Nilaya" Chapter in Los Angeles. Anyone interested in helping form this new group or in learning about our plans is invited to call Ted Siminoski and Phyllis Siegel at (213) 661-9464.

FRIENDS IN BOSTON

Come join our Mutual Support Group in the Boston area. We have monthly meetings. If you're interested call Gina Glicklich (617) 566-1873 or Lee Nott (617) 277-1176.

A heartfelt THANK YOU for the many hundreds of friends who responded to my request to feedback on "Quo vadis" (which means "where do we go from here.") It not only showed us that our Newsletter is actually read, but it was heartwarming that the response was so close to decided on the following policy:

1. If you would like to continue to receive the Newsletter, you MUST fill out the form provided in this Newsletter for that purpose. Then, send us the form with the mailing label or a xerox copy of the mailing label.
2. Anyone who does not return the form and mailing label before January 1, 1983, will be removed from our mailing list and will no longer receive copies of our Newsletter.
3. Starting in 1983, we will be sending our Newsletter out biannually, in June and December, instead of quarterly. This will decrease our expenses by over $20,000.00 per year!

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation in helping us "cut off the fat" in our mailing list. It will also enable us to reach others who need to hear our message. Thank you.

OUR NEW NUMBER

OUR NEW TELEPHONE NUMBER

After our move, at the end of October, our telephone number will change to (714) 743-5553. We plan to have "call referring" take effect as soon as we change numbers, so you will be able to call our old number and receive the new one.

The telephone company recently informed us that as of November 6th, 1982, our area code would change to (619). So good luck....One consolation, our mailing address will remain the same!

...ve reached millions, but I do think t a better way to spend $45,000 a month, than for administrative co telephone bills and the answering of hundreds of thousands of lette which keep typists going day after day. I am never able to see the b of the pile when I return from my journeys.

A retreat and healing center of our own would at this time, with present economy, only add additional burdens and require even m lectures on my part to pay the bills. We made a commitment to ne charge patients for housecalls or consultations and we are going to
to this promise.

We have therefore decided to cut down the office to the bare mi of a few people, to only answer the urgent patient mail and request lectures and workshops.

We will, for the time being, continue the Newsletter as the sole m of communication from us, until the coming year when we see mor clearly where we are with the commitments we have already made.

I hope to take a month off to go to Beirut and do things, without having to worry about who pays the bills at home. We are planning give up the Giftshop, which has not helped us much, and to move offices into those quarters.

Future workshops would then have to be organized by our many wonderful Friends of Shanti Nilaya groups who would not only find right workshop site, but also take care of the registration, in their Sta local lectures are given they would organize these too, including the possible sale of tickets, books and tapes. Each group carries their ow State and in this way contributes to helping people in their own community.

Shanti Nilaya Australia has done this for many years and has don splendid job with all volunteer help. Needless to say, we are grateful beyond words, for the many, many people who have contributed to dozens of workshops here and abroad and who have functioned as drivers, book sales people, and organizers, thus lessening our heavy here in Escondido.

Enclosed is a list of tentative workshops sites for 1983, some of wh are alrady confirmed. We have about 2,000 requests for lectures wh cannot accept, as I don't want to book anything yet into 1984. So, s of you who have been waiting (some for 2 or 3 years), please know we do our best but we do cover the whole world, and with one perso traveling alone we cannot manage anymore.

To all the friends from Chicago to Switzerland, Maui to Sydney,
THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU.
